1. Introduction

Schedule 7 of the NHS Act 2006 requires that the Trust's Constitution 'must make provision for dealing with conflicts of interest of members of the Board of Governors'. The Queen Elizabeth Hospital Foundation Trust's Constitution covers this legal requirement as set out in Appendix 1. A copy of The Constitution is available on the Trust's website.

2. Putting Policy into Practice, at and in between Governors' Council meetings

- The Register of Interests of the Members of the Governors' Council will be reviewed by the Governors' Council every quarter.
- Governors are asked to immediately notify the FT Membership Officer or Trust Secretary should an amendment to the Register of Interests be needed.
- The Chair will ask for any interests to be declared at the beginning of every meeting. The Trust Secretary or FT Membership Officer will update the Governors' Council in respect of any changes to the Register since the previous meeting. Interests in business on the agenda, not previously declared, should also be declared by Governors at this point in the meeting.
- A Governor should immediately declare any interest, which arises during the course of a meeting.
- The Chair will ask a Governor to leave a meeting of the Governors' Council during discussion and/or for voting on any business in which a Governor has declared an interest.
